

Code of Conduct

This applies to all attendees and visitors, both to the Chalet and to any Chalet events.

Category 1

What we want to see

Behaviours that we encourage you to display:

- ✓ Having fun, and bringing a positive and enthusiastic outlook.
- ✓ Listening actively and attentively.
- ✓ Actively and responsibly leading and participating in appropriate group activities, such as tours & duty groups.
- ✓ Willingness to help, include, support, teach and encourage others.
- ✓ Showing proper respect and courtesy to yourself and others, regardless of differences.
- ✓ Showing proper respect to our Scouting and Chalet Traditions and Heritage, and upholding the Scout Promise and Law.
- ✓ Looking out for the health and well-being of yourself and others.
- ✓ Being prepared and organised, demonstrating your time management skills.
- ✓ Following the Bogong Rover Chalet's Safety Guidelines Book.
- ✓ Respecting, looking after, and maintaining tidiness of your belongings and Chalet Property.
- ✓ Showing proper care and respect for the environment, aiming to leave no trace.

Category 2

What is sometimes appropriate

Behaviours that you must seek permission before doing:

- + Using nicknames or conducting practical jokes.
- + Physically touching others, including hugs, assisting with their clothing or gear, or otherwise encroaching on their personal space.
- + Using your phone or other device during communal activities, such as meals.
- + Discussing topics, or using language, that is age appropriate.
- + Leaving the Chalet, ceremonies, or your activity, duty, or tour group.
- + Touching, moving or using other people's belongings.
- + Building and subsequent use of snow jumps.
- + Attempting to make repairs to the Chalet or Chalet Equipment.

Permission may be obtained either from the individual or, when within a group, from the nominated leader. Regarding Chalet repairs, you MUST first consult either the Maintenance Officer, or if they're unavailable, a member of the Wardens Team. Engaging in these behaviours without permission will become Category 3 behaviour.

Category 3

What is NOT appropriate

Behaviours that are assumed as not intentional and are remedied by the individual after being reminded:

- ✗ Anti-social behaviours, including:
 - Inappropriate swearing or conversations.
 - Screaming, screeching, or yelling at others.
 - Name-calling, bad-mouthing or excluding others.
 - Disturbing the sleep, rest, or recovery of others.
 - Poor or non-existent personal hygiene habits.
 - Excessive or repetitive public displays of affection which make others uncomfortable.
- ✗ Being somewhere you should not be.
- ✗ Participating in smoking or vaping at the Chalet or Chalet Events outside of the designated smoking area.
- ✗ Smoking or Vaping in the presence of non-Rover youth members or other minors.
- ✗ Lack of awareness, discretion, or decorum regarding personal private behaviours, including consensual sexual activities, behaviours, or interactions.
- ✗ Disrespecting or mistreating the Chalet or its property.
- ✗ Feeding or exposing someone to food that does not meet their dietary requirements.
- ✗ Not following or upholding the Chalet's rules, policies, guidelines, and procedures, especially regarding safety.
- ✗ Not following or upholding Scouts Victoria's rules, policies and procedures, especially regarding Child Safe and Work Health and Safety rules.
 - e.g. Not working to the "Two Up" rule with Under-18s, except for emergencies.
- ✗ Obstructing thoroughfares or emergency exits.
- ✗ Publishing any photos or videos of an emergency.
- ✗ Intentionally or carelessly damaging hire skis/gear and other loaned equipment.

You must report all instances of these behaviours using our reporting procedure. Failure to remedy the above behaviours will result in escalation to Category 4.

Category 4

What is NOT acceptable

Behaviours that contribute to someone being or feeling uncomfortable or unsafe and will NOT be tolerated:

- ✗ Intentional, repeated or malicious Category 2 behaviours without permission.
- ✗ Intentional, repeated, or malicious Category 3 behaviours.
- ✗ Serious and/or severe Anti-social behaviours, including:
 - Bullying, intimidating, or threatening others.
 - Physically, psychologically, or sexually harassing or assaulting others.
 - Engaging in consensual sexual activities, behaviours, or interactions in designated public areas.
 - Intentionally taking or publishing photos or videos without the express consent of any subject, such as when getting changed or dressed.
- ✗ All activities or behaviours that are proscribed as illegal.
- ✗ Being under the influence of, or partaking in, alcohol before the "Safer Consumption Time" being declared.
- ✗ Disregarding Scouts Victoria's Drug & Alcohol Policy, or otherwise irresponsibly consuming such substances.
- ✗ Transporting other members without permission.
- ✗ Disregarding or ignoring Road Rules or licensing restrictions, such as Probationary License restrictions.
- ✗ Non-Rover youth members or other minors smoking, vaping, consuming alcohol, or engaging in sexual activities, behaviours or interactions. Including Venturers aged 18 or over.

You must report all instances of these behaviours using our reporting procedure.

Reporting Procedure

1. Report to your Activity Leader, Party Leader, or other such nominated person in charge IMMEDIATELY. If this is not possible, move to step 2, 3 or 4 as required. If the person in charge has been reported to, they must complete or nominate someone to complete the remaining steps. Should you feel that you would be unable to call the Warden at the Chalet, take note of the phone number and call when on tour (ie. Conflict of interest, person in a position of power, etc.)
2. If required by law or other such obligation, report to Victoria Police, other Law Enforcement, Emergency Services, or appropriate Government bodies. If not required, move directly to step 3.
3. If required by Scouts Victoria's Child Safe Policy & Rules, report directly to the Child Safe Hotline at Scouts Victoria Headquarters. If not required, move directly to Step 4.
4. Report to the Warden, or another member of the Warden Team as soon as possible. They will advise what further actions must be taken, such as reporting to Scouts Victoria.

Consequences for these behaviours may result in legal ramifications as deemed appropriate.
