

BRC's Safety Guidelines Book

Child Safe Policy

Scope:

All BCMG events.

Note: hirers are responsible for their own child safe obligations & policies

Content

The BCMG adheres to all Child Safe policies as set out by Scouts Victoria. This set of guidelines does not override any Scouts Victoria policy, rather this aims to highlight key matters that arise from the Child Safe policies in a Chalet context.

The Child Safe number (1800 870 772) must be called if immediate assistance or support is required on any of the following:

- If you form a reasonable belief that a young person could be at risk of harm or you have concerns for their safety or well-being. This could be for many reasons, including mental health or family violence.
- If someone discloses sexual, physical, psychological or emotional harm or neglect towards a young person. This includes any disclosures from young people in regard to harm towards themselves.
- If you have observed harmful behaviour towards a young person or seen suspected signs of abuse.
- You have observed a young person participate in harmful behaviour towards themselves or someone else.
- You have an incident that is continuing to escalate beyond local resource capacity or urgent assistance by Scouts Victoria is required.

The Child Safety reporting form must be filled out within 24 hours for:

- An incident that meets the criteria for calling the Child Safety Line (in addition to the call).
- An incident involving the inappropriate or negative behaviour of an adult towards a child.
- An incident that is a category 4 behaviour from their Code of Conduct.
- An incident that you are not sure if you should report or not.

BRC's Safety Guidelines Book

Due to limited reception at the Chalet, it is suggested that a Warden be contacted to fill out the report whilst on the phone to the Chalet.

Category 4 behaviours are never acceptable behaviour (behaviour from youth members that is unacceptable at any time, Cat 4 and will be managed by the Scouts Victoria Child Safety Team)

eg. anything that makes someone feel unsafe such as racism, homophobia, persistent unwanted behaviour, stalking, bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, sexting, sexual harassment, sexual assault, harmful sexual behaviour, violence, lack of consent, sexual innuendo, intimidation, threats, violence, having or sharing inappropriate material on devices, persisting with disputes/grudges after an incident has been addressed.

For all overnight BCMG events where a child is present, the BCMG will verify that all over 18s hold current Working With Childrens (or equivalent), no more than 48 hours from the start of the event.

At any event where a child is present, a briefing will be had to remind everyone of adhering to Scouts Victoria's policies (ie. 2 deep).
