First Aiders Guidelines

Scope:

All events run by the BCMG – hirers are responsible for their own policy/guidelines

Content

It is a recommendation that on all tours or chalet event that at least 1 participants hold current first aid qualifications. These people are to be identified in the activity plan/briefing (this can include trip intention form) and identified to all participants.

We do not have a verification process to confirm the status of a participant's first aid qualifications.

The first aiders are not replacing the requirement for all participants to carry a personal first aid kit. Please refer to the packing list with the minimum first aid kit requirements.

Suggested minimum qualification:

HLTAID003 Provide first aid (Level 2)

Approved by Risk Sub-Group 26th November 2024
